Eval. Notes:	An Investigation was conducted for the above Former PSEG Plant instead of an LQG. The previous RCRA inspection was conducted on 9/14/07 with no violations cited. The plant is no longer operating at this location and there has been years of on-going remedial action activities to clean up the property. The inspection was concluded on 1/22/19 after tracking down the correct contact person. During my visit, the site was gated and closed with a fence. I met with a local consultant out on the street and he passed on the properties contact information. I spoke to Mr. Jacques Benaroch, Project Mgr for PSEG of this location on 1/22/19 and he informed me that they have had several years of (D008) for lead generated at this location from the excavation remedial action project. They have completed the project in December 2017 and if there are no other hazardous waste going out from the site, he said he knows to deactivate this EPA ID number. He also mentioned that the site will remain as a PSEG property to house vehicles and trucks and store equipment. The site also has a high-power electricity substation to provide public utility services for the local domestic customers therefore, although the site is not manned 100 % of the time, they have staff members coming in and out of the site on a daily basis. No hazardous waste was noted during the visit and no hazardous waste will be generated at this location. The EPA ID number will be deactivated as soon as all DEP site remediation clean up, paperwork and clean bill-of-health is issued. Mr. Benaroch will remain the contact for this location. Mr. Benaroch sent me paperwork associated with an LQG for the past LQG amount of hazardous waste generated from the excavation activities, including the biennial report. Hard copies of manifests for all site remediation managed sites are kept at their Hadley Rd office in the Records room located at 4000 Hadley Rd, South Plainfield, NJ 07080. The contingency plan is pr
